The approval process preceding the construction in SIZ Triangle - the general specimen
	January	February	March	April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December	January
Elaboration of the investment plan and proposal of the covenants
Publication on the official notice board
Approval of the investment plan and covenants in the Board of Counselors of the Ústí Region, the Board of Representatives of the Ústí Region and the Ministry of Industry and Trade of the Czech Republic
Signature of the Reservation Covenant
Signature of the Plan Covenant for need of planning procedure
Preparation project documentation for planning procedure
Preparation project documentation for environmental impact assessment
Planning permission
Preparation project documentation for building procedure
Building permission
Signature of the Purchase Covenant including the Easement Covenant
Land preparation
Start of investment construction													